1. Through a conversation with Soviet officers it was learned, in early January 1950, that the billeting office of the Soviet Occupation Forces Germany was to be dissolved.
2. A substitute for the billeting office was to be established in Luckenwalde (N 53/2 70), under the command of Lt Col Morozov, former chief of the billeting office. Capt Solovyov, Capt Sergeyev and 2d Lt Ignatiyev were to be taken from the billeting office, while the other officers employed there were to be transferred to the Soviet Union or retained in Berlin for special assignment.
3. The new Luckenwalde office was to be staffed primarily with officers who were to come from the Soviet Union in January and February 1950.

25X1A Comment:

a. The reported changes appear possible in view of the reorganization of the SMA into the SCC. It is doubted, however, whether the reported billeting office belongs to the Group of Occupation Forces Germany or the Third Gds Meez Army (Cadre), because the substitute for the billeting office was to be established in Luckenwalde.

b. The mentioned officers are not known.
